

6516205294.txt

Dear Sirs,
It appears that you are considering restrictions to satellite radio. Remember that we the consumers are hurt by any restrictions imposed. Let there be competition! I pay for satellite radio because the many local stations cannot provide the quality of service I want. If satellite radio can provide traffic and weather information better than my local stations, so be it. Let the local stations improve don't shoot the innovators.

Sincerely,

Kevin Schoenfeld